Merlo Vineyard

$6,500,000

250 ± Acres

Sonoma County

9965 W. Dry Creek Road, California

Starting at the foothills of the northwestern end of Dry Creek Valley and rising up to almost 1000 feet sits the celebrated 250-acre Merlo Vineyard. Commanding unprecedented views over the entire Dry Creek Valley out to Mt. Saint Helena to the west and Lake Sonoma and Pritchett Peaks to the east, and Lago di Merlo in the near distance to the south. The approach to Merlo Vineyard is through Dry Creek Road and skirting Lake Sonoma to ascend Stewarts Point Road. Arriving at the entrance, one is met with a monumental stone entrance and iron gate. Passing through the gate, you meander down a gravel road with pines and oaks framing the journey.
